BUNCO QUARTET

Wanted For Grand Larceny by Trick and Device

- No. 1—Mrs. Eleanor Meir, alias Mrs. Wilson. American, age about 47, height about 5 feet and four inches, weight 130 pounds, hair light bobbed, eyes blue, complexion dark. Dressed in a dark beaded dress, tan shoes and a long brown coat somewhat faded.
- No. 2—Sherman Meir, alias Wilson. American, age about 28 years, height 5 feet 5 inches, weight 135 pounds, slender build, black hair with a Chaplin mustache, dark complexion. Dressed in a dark brown suit, black hat and shoes. He claimed that he was connected with a New Orleans oil company. He was last seen at the Lankershim Hotel in Los Angeles.
- No. 3—Richard Roe, who claimed to be a lumberman, possibly of German decent. Age 72 years, height 6 feet, weight 185 pounds, medium long face, grey hair and bald, grey eyes, coarse complexion. He was wearing a dark suit of clothes and was last seen at the Plaza Hotel in Riverside.
- No. 4—John Doe Bloomenshay, age about 25, height 5 feet seven inches, weight 180 pounds, brown hair and Chaplin mustache. When last seen at the Plaza Hotel in Riverside he was wearing a dark blue suit and black hat. He claimed that he worked for a Broker in the Mutual Insurance Building, Los Angeles.
- The BUNCO GAME started on the water front in Long Beach where Mrs. Eleanor Meir met Zack Taylor, a man of about sixty-five years, who was grieving over family affairs. The Meir woman grasped the opportunity and hearing that the old man had a few thousand dollars played the sympathy stunt which lasted several days, then she introduced the following—Sherman Meir, supposed to be her nephew; Richard Roe, who claimed to be a lumberman, and John Doe Bloomenshay, a supposed assistant broker.
- They played the oil stock game with a get rich quick proposition with Mr. Taylor, which ended at the Plaza Hotel in Riverside, California, where they relieved him of three thousand dollars, in very much the same manner as the old washer game has been played.
- We hold a felony warrant for each of these people and are very anxious to locate them
